Clinicians

Dedicated to inspiring musicians and audiences through a determined passion for musical excellence, Dr. Irene Messoloras maintains an active career as a sought-after music educator, conductor, clinician, and adjudicator. Her ensembles have delivered meaningful and passionate performances across the United States and on the international stage in both Europe and Asia.

Dr. Messoloras has served as Director of Choral Activities at the University of California, Irvine since 2019, and currently serves as the Associate Chair of the Music Department. She conducts the University Chamber Singers, and the University Concert Choir, and teaches courses in conducting. Prior, Dr. Messoloras served as Director of Choral Activities at the University of La Verne, Chair of the Fine Arts Department and Head of Choral Activities at Northwestern Oklahoma State University, and Director of Choral Activities at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington.

Under Messoloras' direction, her professional choirs, community choirs, and university choirs have produced professional recordings on major record labels, and her ensembles performed recently for the American Choral Directors Association National Conference in 2023, and 2021. Other major performances include the National Association for Music Education National Conference in 2015, Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Beijing Concert Hall, national commercial campaigns, and professional music videos. Most recently in 2024, Dr. Messoloras' Hour of Power Choir and UCI Chamber Singers were recognized by the American Prize Classical Music Competition as finalists in the category for best choral performance along with the Bacon Award for the performance of American music.

Dr. Messoloras is the recipient of numerous awards for creative programming, diversity and inclusivity, community engagement, and conducting. Recently, Dr. Messoloras was awarded the Grand Prize for conducting at the World Classical Music Awards (2023), the Vivaldi International Music Competition Grand Prize Winner (2023), and received first place with special recognition at the Bach International Music Competition (2023).

Dr. Messoloras received her Doctor of Musical Arts degree in choral conducting from the University of California, Los Angeles at the Herb Alpert School of Music. For more information please visit www.irenemessoloras.com.

Dr. Karsten Longhurst is Chair of Vocal Music Education at the Wanda L. Bass School of Music at Oklahoma City University and the Artistic Director of the Canterbury Youth Voices. He holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Choral Music from the University of Southern California with emphases in music education, arts leadership, and vocal performance. Previous degrees include a Master in Music in Choral Conducting from the University of Utah and a Bachelor of Music in Education and German from Weber State University.

Prior to joining OCU and Canterbury Youth Voices, Dr. Longhurst served as the Director of Choral Music and the Assistant Director of Music Education at Northwestern Oklahoma State University. In 2022, the NWOSU Singers were a featured Honor Choir at the OkMEA State Music Educators Convention. He also taught high school and middle school for six years in Ogden, Utah, and was honored with the Teaching in Excellence award.

Dr. Longhurst is active as a guest conductor, presenter, adjudicator, and performer. He currently serves as the President-Elect of the Oklahoma Choral Director's Association and is a member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing and the National Association for Music Educators. He enjoys performing as a professional solo and ensemble tenor, having collaborated with artists such as the Rolling Stones, Barry Manilow, and Elton John, and as a guest soloist in the Salt Lake City Tabernacle. He has performed with ensembles including the Salt Lake Vocal Artists, Brevitas, and the Enid Symphony. In addition to his musical interests, Dr. Longhurst enjoys spending time with his family in the outdoors and coaching his son's baseball team.

Laura Farnell has a passion for making music with singers, working with educators, and creating accessible and artistic choral compositions. After receiving her BME in Choral Music (piano emphasis) from Baylor University in Waco, Texas, Laura taught elementary music for two years in Mansfield ISD, followed by eight years of junior high choir in Arlington ISD. She was honored by her schools with Teacher of the Year awards in 2000 and 2003, and she received an Excellence in Education award in 2004 as Arlington ISD's outstanding junior high teacher of the year.

Laura presently lives in Arlington, Texas, and serves as a choral adjudicator and an invited music conference presenter/clinician for district, region, and state honor choirs across the country. As a composer, she especially enjoys writing and arranging music for developing choirs and has more than one hundred choral compositions in publication, including many commissioned pieces and a co-authored sight reading method book. She currently edits the new E2A choral series through Alliance Music Publications.

She and her husband, Russell, and their two sons (all singers), attend First Presbyterian Church of Arlington, where Russell serves as Minister of Music and Laura directs the Youth and Children's choirs.

Accompanists

Carrie Edwards is a pianist, vocalist, instrumentalist, choral conductor, and educator. She earned a Bachelor of Music Education degree with an emphasis in piano and voice and later earned a double Master of Music degree in Collaborative Piano and Music Education with honors, both from University of Central Oklahoma. Carrie has taught in Oklahoma, Texas, Uganda, and Cameroon in public, private, and international schools at the elementary, secondary, and collegiate levels. In the elementary and secondary levels, she has taught several music courses as well as science, math, drama, and coached softball, swimming, basketball, and volleyball. Carrie teaches private music lessons in piano, voice, acoustic guitar, electric bass, percussion, and music theory. Currently, Carrie teaches for University of Central Oklahoma and Oklahoma Baptist University. She is the pianist for Canterbury Youth Voices Cantabile choir as well as for numerous schools in Oklahoma. She is also the pianist, youth choir director, and handbell choir director at Meadowood Baptist Church and the bandleader and keyboard player for the Oklahoma Student Worship Choir.

David Hillis has been conducting and accompanying choirs for 32 years, including the past 24 years at Heritage Hall. During his tenure at Heritage Hall, the choral music program has enjoyed success on and off campus, including numerous Revues and musical productions, national anthem performances at sporting events, caroling for holiday events, and the Sweepstakes Award at 12 OSSAA State Choir contests. David received his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Piano Performance from Oklahoma City University. He served as an accompanist at OCU from 1995 until 2000 and conducted the Women's Choral Union from 1999 to 2001. He also had the honor of accompanying the Oklahoma Music Educators Association's All-State High School Chorus for four years, as well as the OkMEA All-State Children's Chorus from 2006-2007 and 2009-2023. In addition to teaching, David is the collaborative pianist for the Canterbury Voices and Chorale, one of Canterbury's Youth Choirs. He currently resides in Oklahoma City with his wife, Crystal, and their three children, Ethan, Julia, and Harper.

Stephen Ziegler has served as the Vocal Music Director at Norman North since 2014. Under his direction, the Norman North Jazz Choir performed as an invited ensemble at the 2020 & 2024 OkMEA conferences in Tulsa. He was chairperson for the Oklahoma ACDA All-State Jazz Choir from 2018-2020. In 2022, Mr. Ziegler served as clinician to the Junior High Honor Chorus for the Eastern District Choral Festival in Muskogee, OK.

From 2016-2024, Mr. Ziegler directed the Canterbury Youth Voices Chorale in OKC. Under his preparation, the Chorale appeared several times at Civic Center Music Hall, for large works including Orff's Carmina Burana & Britten's War Requiem, among others. In December 2021, Canterbury Youth Voices performed as part of the 80th Pearl Harbor Day Ceremony in Honolulu, Hawaii.

As a pianist, Mr. Ziegler has served various choirs around the OKC metro, as well as honor choirs with the SWACDA Regional Conference, OAKE National Conference, OkMEA "Circle the State with Song", and the OkMEA All-State Treble Chorus.

Stephen holds degrees in Vocal Music Education (BME, Oklahoma City University), Church Music (BM, OCU), and Choral Conducting (MM, University of Oklahoma). He lives in Norman with a beautiful trio of ladies who make him better every day: his wife, Meredith, and daughters, Charlotte & Caroline. Soli Deo Gloria!
